Responsible Government.

The Council, yesterday, was mainly ecopied with discussing whether Reponsible Government should be inaugurated simultaneously with or subsequently to Confederation. The discussion arose upon a motion of Mr. DeCosmos, seconded by Mr. Nathan, to go into Committee of the Whole on that portion of the Governor's speech respecting Responsible Hovernment. No sooner had the question been called up than Dr. Helmeken proposed an amendment, to the effect that the Governor be requested to send down a bill excluding aparison. Helmeken proposed an amendment, to the effect that the Governor be requested to send down a bill excluding nominees from the Council, and increase the number of representatives, in order that Responsible Government might be inaugurated at the next session after Confederation.

Baussus, Jan. 8—Right arrests have been mittee.

Also, a bill by Ramsey to provide for the city of suspected Bonapartiste agents. where new or young members, of whom there are several in the House might be able to speak more than once, will shortly ventilate the question. There are words in the dictionary that may be found that will express this political hunt them up. It is sufficient for us to the Germans.

say that the course pursued by Dr. Helmacken was not the one calculated to promote harmony between the elective members and the government nominees in the House. For the same result might have been attained by the government in Committee, and at the same time have preserved its prestire. We leave to try and cut off the Germans.

London, Jan. 7—A semi-official dispatch announces that it is impossible to fix the time of meeting of the Congress of Powers, in consequence of the French representatives.

The Observer says that the conference of Powers will certainly meet before the 23rd of January.

The refusal of Favre to attend is not considered final, but whether France is representatives. served its prestige for play. As it was the arbitrary course adopted resulted in compelling Mr. Bunster to propose, and Mr. Nathan to second, a resolution asking for Responsible Government simultameously with Confederation. On the vote being taken Messrs.

Nathan Bunster, Nelson, Skinner, and were battered down DeCosmos voted for it; whilst Drs duration.

Helmcken and Carrall with the Official The Gern Members voted against it. Thus the votes and opinions of two elected members in our six-by-nine Council outbers in our six-by-nine Council outbers of five others! This is a sample of what we may expect from those who now hold the reins of power, and intermediate village. when a strong measure is resolved on. When Helmeken's amendment came up as against the motion to go into Committee of the Whole, two elective members forced our lines at Neutlle. The French at night took the offensive and entered St. Arnaud of Helmcken's motion, Messrs. Nathan and Nelson voted for it, rather than allow the Government Members by raising some technical objection to refuse afterward to allow the question to be brought forward again this session. by Gen. The measure is, however, now carried. The bill will no doubt be brought down; and after Confederation brought down; and after Confederation shall have taken place, according to the Government programme there will be an election, and probably next January or March we shall get Responsible Government; but not before. Any further attempt to get Responsible Government to get Responsible Government. The Black Fort will be his base of operations.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The Senate proceeded to the consideration of Heman's Home Bill, revising the law relative to mints and assesy offices. An amendment was reported by the Financial Committee, continuing coinage and charges on bullion, which produced a discussion. Cole moved the abolution of coinage charges; Sherman opposed and Cole, Corbitt, Williams and Stewart supported. Cole urged his motion because the report ephances the balance of bullion by promoting the conversion into coin, and to return ephances the balance of bullion by promoting the conversion into cein, and to return the coin in the United States. The latter considertion was urged as tending to faciliation the resumption of specie payment.
Casserly regarded the coinage charge as a tax on one of the great'staples of the country, the effect of which is to increase the already large quantities of bullion now annually exported from California to Europe. Sherman objected to the repeal as inappropriate and Casserly remarked that the Financial Committee warmly favored the international system by which remarked that the Financial Committee warmity favored the international system by which our own coin would assimilate and be advanced by other nations. Cassely in course of quotations from documents on the subject cited a table prepared by the Retrenchment Committee which shows that out of 40 millions of builton produced on the Pacific Coast net more than 50 per cent had reached this Country. Coles amendment was withdrawn when the Senate Committee amendment was adopted by 26 to 12. The effect of this is to when the Senate Committee amendment was adopted by 26 to 12. The effect of this is to continue the coinage charges of three tenths instead of of half per cent. as heretofore.

This I could easily prove. At the present time, however I simply wish to state that my object in coming to Victoria was to endeavor to collect some means to alleviate the distress, which I know exists among the families of the miners of Nanaimo. My applications for this purtoria was to enuestor to continue the distress, which I know exists among the families of the miners of Manaimo. My applications for this purpose have been responded to in the Spirit of Liberality, Characteristic of Victorians; But I regret to and that I have been challenged as "The head and front" of the Miners' Strike. I desire to disabuse the public mind of this idea by stating that I was absent in San Francisco when work in the coal mines was enspended, and have never attended any of the meetings upon the subject in

TALE AND NEW WESTRIBSTER ROAD.

Mr. Nelson moved that a respectful address be presented to His Excellency the Governor, praying for the construction of a wagon road from New Westminster to Yale, and that a sum of money be placed upon the estimates for the commencement of the work. In asking for the support of the House, he did not underestimate the magnitude of the work. From the importance of the work a commencement should be made; an immense amount of unney had been expended on the construcof money had been expended on the construc-Omineca next spring.

The Umineca Land petition has received over 1,100 signatures, and about 400 more exnent, that from Yale to Cariboo ; but during a great portion of the year, the amount spent, was rendered unproductive from the want of continuous communication during the winter. The mover depicted the dangers and difficulties experienced in navigating the Fraser dur-ing that season, to prove the necessity of the work. Another reason was, that the road would pass through one of the finest farming districts in the Colony, and in the winter would enable the farmers to send their produce to market. Mr. Nelson referred to '62, when the people of Yale and the country around, came almost to the point of starva-tion for the want of communication with the T. B. Mr. Trutch did not think a wagon road required at present; a good trail would be sufficient and was urgently required. A road was desirable if means were at hand. A large sum had been expended on the sleigh road, in connection with the telegraph line, but he didnt think the Colony got a return for that expenditure. Last year (during his absence) $600 were expended on the route, but the parts most required were neglected. It was the intention to improve the trail between Hope and Sumass. This year, $2,000 is placed upon the estimates for the work, and fvoted, and expended where wished last year, t would enable settlers to drive their cattle over it all seasons of the year and during the close of navigation. Hon. Dr. Catrall would vote for the motion. He severely censured the Government should be inaugurated for net having attended to the subject long ago. Impecuniosity, he presumed, was the cause. He didn't see any reason why a survey should not be made this summer.

Hon. Dr. Helmcken argued that it was impossible and impracticable to get Responsible Government. All the bouse could do this very matter was, during several seasons was to have it changed to a representative was a hobby of his. He believed it was the route a railway from the Rocky Mountains to the Thompson valley would take. To attack the Government was quite uncalled for. It was entirely affacecessary to send such a re-

The ship Young America, which arrived here yesterday from New York, ran ashorest Cape St. Lucas and got off unharmed, after throwing over part of the cargo. Consignees are called on to sign a general average bond of ten per cent. the country was fitted for Responsible Government, and his opinions were not changed.
The conditions necessary for Responsible Government in the colony did not obtain today any more than did then, but they will follow on Confederation with the increase of population, and such being the case we can predict, sooner or later, we would be in a condition for working out Responsible government. He did not believe A rain storm set in early this evening, and the Government han no disposition to impede s now raining heavily. San Joss, Jan. 9 - Rain commenced to fall its inauguration so soon as it could successessfully carry out. He looked on Mr. De Cosmos' resolution as impracticable in its notion, nor did he think with the chief Comsteadily, at 5 p. m., every prospect of a cennotion, nor did he think with the chief Cemmissioner, that eight-tenths of the people favored Responsible Government. Many of the most intelligent and wealthy have grave doubts of the successful working of Responsible Government in this Colony. That a large majority demand it, he did not doubt, and so he would vote for the amendment as the most practicable.

Dr. Helmcken replied that there would be plenty of time to discuss the question. He been postponed until the 15th of April. John R. Titcomb has been removed from clerk of the Police Court, which position be has held for 13 years. It creates great surprovide for Responsible Government, too.

Mr. DeCosmos urged that the amendment be withdrawn. The point was, the difference of opinion as to "simultaneously" or "subsequently." He maintained that Responsible Government could be intro-
